

Equita

Corporate & Financial Communications

Equita assists companies' executive management in creating value by optimizing their communications and interaction with most important stakeholders.

Advice is based on extensive experience from leading positions within executive management and corporate communications in large corporations, further developed through assignments from a wide range of clients since 1998.

Focus

- Goal-oriented communications
- Close cooperation with senior management
- Long-term relations
- On-going cooperation

Objectives

- Grow familiarity and develop confidence among important stakeholders
- Pursue strategic objectives – commercial as well as financial

Clients

- All industries, sizes, ownership and situations
- Emphasize good relationships with stakeholders
- Frequently among the leading and most respected companies in their category

Strength

- Corporate and financial communications
- Capital markets communications
- Media relations
- Transactions