

Henning Rostung

Since 1998 Henning Rostung has advised companies' executive management on communications, typically focusing on strategy, reputation and finance. Clients are among Denmark's leading and respected companies within each their industry. During the years he has also contributed to a wide range of international and national mergers and acquisitions, IPOs and capital market transactions, his company consistently topping the Mergermarket ranking.

Advice is based on extensive experience from large internationally oriented corporations. When TDC was listed on NYSE in 1994 in connection with a global offering among the largest at the time, Henning Rostung was appointed Senior Vice President with responsibility for corporate communications and liaison with investors and the global capital markets. As a member of the Group Management Team he was also involved in strategic business development.

Previously, as Senior Vice President and a member of the Management Group of Privatbanken/Unibank (now Nordea), he held executive positions within finance, controlling, IT, communications and the global branch network.

Henning Rostung has taken an active role in the development of professional communications and Investor Relations. He has presented and taught at numerous conferences and education programmes and has contributed to a range of Danish and international professional publications. He was the founder and first chairman of the Danish Investor Relations Association in 1988, served in three periods on the Board and was named honorary member in 2006. During several years he was also an international member of National Investor Relations Institute, USA.

From 1990 to 2010 Henning Rostung was an external examiner, appointed by the Minister of Education, at around 300 master's degree exams within business and management. He has served on the Boards, often as chairman, of several local community organisations, both public and private sector, and has served a term as civil juror in the district court.

Henning Rostung (1950) is M.Sc.(Econ.) from Copenhagen University (1974) and has added executive programmes in the USA (JP Morgan 1978, Harvard 1980 og Penn State 1991).

Tel. (+45) 2331 8780
E-mail hro@equita.dk
www.equita.dk